Missing Kayaker - Update

Today at approximately 4:00 AM, the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department received a call from Eastchester PD (EPD) requesting a wellbeing check of a resident of Mamaroneck. EPD advised they received a call from an Eastchester resident stating her son, a 45-year-old male, left her home yesterday at approximately 6:00 PM to go kayaking from Harbor Island Park. The last communication from him was at approximately 8:13 PM, at which time he stated he was in Hempstead LI and would be kayaking back to Mamaroneck.

Detectives from the Village of Mamaroneck PD as well as Eastchester PD began an investigation. The US Coast Guard, Westchester County PD, Nassau County PD, New Rochelle PD, and the Mamaroneck Village Marine Unit were notified and are assisting in locating the missing kayaker.

At approximately 2:15 PM, the US Coast Guard made notification to the New Rochelle Police Marine Unit that a body was discovered in the water near Orchard Beach in the Bronx. The body was recovered and identified by detectives from the Village of Mamaroneck PD and Eastchester PD as Mr. Laurence T. Broderick, the missing kayaker from Mamaroneck.
