Prostitution Arrest

Last month, the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department received information regarding suspicious activity at 604 Halstead Avenue. It was reported multiple unidentified males were entering and exiting the property at all hours of the day. A records check revealed there were no permits issued to the location to operate any type of business.

Village of Mamaroneck Police Detectives conducted an investigation which resulted in the arrest of two females from Flushing, NY. One 48-year-old female was charged with Prostitution, a B Misdemeanor and Unauthorized Practice of Crime, an E Felony. A second female, a 40-year-old female, was charged with Unauthorized Practice of Crime, an E Felony. Both suspects were issued appearance tickets and are scheduled to appear in Village of Mamaroneck Court on a later date.

Several village code summonses were issued to the building owners for operating a business without a permit.
