Violent Parolee Arrested after Leaving the Scene of an Accident with Injuries

On Wednesday, April 17th, at approximately 7:50 pm, the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department was notified by Westchester County's Real Time Crime Center of an auto accident with injuries that occurred on I-95 near Mamaroneck Avenue. The operator of one of the vehicles involved in the accident had fled from the scene towards Mamaroneck Avenue. Officers responded to the scene and began to canvass for the suspect.

While canvassing for the suspect, a person matching the description of the suspect was seen near Mamaroneck Avenue and North Barry Avenue Extension. When officers went to stop the suspect, he fled from them and ultimately jumped over a bridge railing and into the Mamaroneck River. The suspect had injured himself in the fall and had become compliant with officers' commands. A Village of Mamaroneck Police Officer entered the shallow water and was able to take the suspect into custody.

The suspect was identified as Mr. Tykeem Shalique Hines, a 29-year-old male, from Stamford, Connecticut. While interviewing the suspect, it was learned that he was on Parole for past weapons possession charges and was wearing an ankle monitor.

Mamaroneck EMS was notified and responded to the scene to evaluate the suspect for his injury from the fall. He refused medical treatment and was turned over to the New York State Police.

The suspect was charged by New York State Police with multiple vehicle and traffic law infractions and is due to appear in the Village of Mamaroneck Court on May 27th, 2025, to answer all charges.
