Drunk Driver Crashes into Parked Car, sends It crashing into Home, Driver Arrested

On Tuesday, May 6, 2025, at approximately 10:56 PM, Village of Mamaroneck Police responded to multiple 911 calls of a motor vehicle accident in the area of Palmer and Maple Avenues. As the Officers arrived in the area, they observed a vehicle partially buried in the first floor of a residence in the 300 block of Mt. Pleasant Ave. The vehicle engine was off and did not appear to have been in operation. Officers continued to canvass the area and located witnesses who reported that the initial accident had occurred in the 300 block of Palmer Ave. As officers continued their search, they located the primary scene and identified the driver of the vehicle causing the crash. Based upon investigation, it was determined that the driver, a 22-year-old female Village resident, was traveling eastbound on Palmer Ave, when she struck a parked, unoccupied vehicle, causing it to careen into the residence on Mount Pleasant Ave. EMS responded, evaluated the driver, who refused further medical attention. Upon further investigation, the driver was placed under arrest for suspicion of Driving While Intoxicated.

The driver has been charged with Driving While Intoxicated, Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated, both of which are unclassified misdemeanors, and Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle, a violation.

The driver was released pending a future court date, due to the listed offenses not being bail eligible in New York State.
